

Interviewee: Marian Kivland

Interviewer: Pat McGrath

Date of Interview: 1991

Grandparents born Wilmette and Gross Point; father 1st policeman

One of 13 children; at Cig and Bloom by 20th which didn't go through; Scharfkens pond for skating; story of horses that had belonged to Fire dept hearing bells and running away.

Stories of St. Joe's school

Lists of saloons and greenhouses
Story of Zelke golden wedding at village hall; and dances

Description of chores at home

Dual communions at St. Joes

Did not go to New Trier

Started in German, for chatecism

Shopping in Gross Point--the stores; home funerals; weddings

Streetcars in Wilmette; on Central, Evanston; Northwestern; destinations downtown for theatre, vaudeville; Ravinia and Riverview

Lists of businesses, of people;

Brother served in WWI; nuns knitting, rallys; working for Northwestern; 87.50 month; to Century of Progress once; bouth wedding clothes at Boston Store or The Fair;

Story of mail service and dairying and getting electricity after annexation; location of houses; ice source; vendors; trips to Riverview; zoo;